

SOP 23 - Working Alone

- A. It is prudent to avoid working alone in a laboratory.
- B. Individuals working alone should arrange to periodically and regularly check with, or be checked by, other personnel.
- C. Safety of Location employees overrides any other priority. Supervisory personnel or the Collateral Duty Safety Officer may prohibit working alone for certain operations.